(Unison)

Ever-present God, let Your Spirit fill this place, for we need to know that You are in charge. Through the terrors of the night, amid the arrows that fly by day, we need to sense Your power, Your protection, Your higher purpose. Show us here Your saving, healing strength. Grant to us such confidence and contentment that we may look beyond ourselves to become a blessing to others. Amen.

— TIME WITH THE GROWING CHURCH —

Jesus once said that unless we receive the Kingdom as a child we cannot enter into it. This time spent with the youngest members of our worshipping congregation reminds us of the great truth that all of us are children of God and that all of us need to grow in wisdom and in faith. Children of all ages are invited to come forward for a children's message. Following the Children's Message all children are invited to Sunday school.

Parents are welcome to accompany hesitant children.

The Bible is one of the means by which God chooses to touch your heart. May you rededicate yourself to reading God's word that gives hope and guidance for today and the promise of eternity for tomorrow.

Congregation: With joy we recommit ourselves to reading, learning, and growing in God's word.

(Psalm 78:4-7)

Leader: We will not hide them from their descendants; we will tell the next generation the praiseworthy deeds of the LORD, His power, and the wonders He has done.

Congregation: He decreed statutes for Jacob and established the law in Israel, which He commanded our ancestors to teach their children,

Leader: so the next generation would know them, even the children yet to be born, and they in turn would tell their children.

Congregation: Then they would put their trust in God and would not forget His deeds but would keep His commands.

God Has a
Purpose for YOU

THE LORD'S PRAYER

(Unison)

Our Father, Who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

DEPARTING HYMN

ANTHEM

On Eagle's Wings
FFC Chancel Choir

INVITATION TO CONFESSION

Leader: We are in need to God's mercy, forgiveness, and help. Yet too easily we seek security in things that do not satisfy. We are tempted and trapped by senseless and harmful desires. We become indifferent to the plight of others. Join together in confessing our dilemma.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

(Unison)

All powerful God, we have become so comfortable with our advantages that we forget who makes them possible. We are so eager for riches that we wander away from faith. We consider ourselves more worthy than others to enjoy our bounty. We look down on people who seem less industrious or differently gifted than we are. We turn away from the plight of those in need. Forgive us. Melt hardened hearts so we may participate in the joy of Your realm here and now. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

(Responsive)

Leader: Know that you and I are forgiven. God chose us to be a light in this world that is too filled with darkness and despair. When we confess with penitent hearts, God washes us spiritually clean. Therefore, do good; be rich in good works, generous, and ready to share. In so doing, you fulfill your baptism and become God's messenger.

All: Amen.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

A Word About Worship at First Federated Church

From its beginning, the Christian community has gathered on the first day of the week to hear the scriptures read and proclaimed as well as celebrate our Lord's Supper (Eucharist). Our worship always begins with God. It is God who takes the initiative and calls us into be. In the name of Christ we respond to God's call and assemble as a community of faith.

Call to Worship. Words from scripture are spoken or sung to remind us who God is and what God has done. This "call to worship" often includes a Prelude and Introit.

Hymns. Worshipers sing praise to God that proclaims God's greatness, majesty, love and goodness.

Confession. Worshipers are called to acknowledge that no one is perfect. We are called to confess the reality of sin in our personal as well as our communal life. Claiming the promises of God sealed in baptism, we humbly confess our sin.

Prayer for Illumination. This prayer seeks illumination of the Holy Spirit and calls upon God to make us receptive to the life-changing Word, which comes to us through the scriptures.

Sermon. When the Bible has been read, its message is proclaimed in a sermon or other form of exposition of God's Word. The God who speaks in scripture speaks to us now. The God who acted in biblical history acts today. Through the Holy Spirit, Christ is present in the sermon, offering grace and calling for obedience. The proclamation of God's Word in scripture and sermon invites a response of faith.

Affirmation of Faith. A response to the proclamation of the Word, worshipers may affirm the faith by saying or singing a creed of the faith or through music, hymn, spiritual or song.

Baptism. Except in extraordinary circumstances, Baptism is celebrated in the context of worship. As with the Lord's Supper, Baptism is a sign and act of God's love by which God's grace is made visible.

Lord's Supper (The Eucharist). In New Testament times the celebration of the Eucharist on each Lord's Day was the norm. One of the Church's two sacraments (the other being Baptism) was given to us by Christ. In this sacrament the promises of God are made visible and concrete.

Pastoral Rites. Response to the Word may include other acts of commitment and recognition, such as marriage, ordination and installation of church officers, and commissioning for Christian service.

Prayers. In response to the Word, prayers are offered acknowledging God's presence in the world and in daily life.

Charge and Benediction. This is the formal dismissal that concludes the worship service. The Charge reminds worshipers that God sends us into the world to be a light that shines brightly in the midst of darkness. The Benediction is a blessing.

I am glad that you could join with us for worship today.
